PARK ACADEMY is the only school in Oregon that provides an articulated elementary through high school curriculum to students who struggle with dyslexia and other language related learning differences. It was founded in 2005 by Piper Park, a parent who believed it important to give other students the opportunity that her son received by attending a school that addressed his dyslexic challenge. Park Academy's mission is to empower students with diverse learning challenges to reach their highest potential of giftedness, while excelling academically and becoming responsible citizens and community leaders.
